Reach for the Stars

Our host Timea Nagy (Canadian Survivor of Human Trafficking and Human Rights activist), will have a conversation with Canadian 'A Listers' about perceived happiness, as well as what is real and what is fake in the LIFE we only can see on Television. A life that many Youth chase as a dream; a dream that often sold to them by the wrong people and a dream that end up become a nightmare...

What is life really like in "that world"?

What did they have to do to get there?

What is the reality of the perceived life style we see on television?

How much influence and impact our Pop Culture has on our Youth and next generation?

Their perspective on today's Pop culture and message to our Youth.
